

FIN Maintenance Ltd

Job Description – Mechanical Project Engineer

Job Summary

Title	Mechanical Project Engineer
Location	Belfast
Operating Regions	UK & Ireland
Job Type	Permanent Full-Time, Immediate Start
Reporting to	FIN Director

The Role

- Provide technical support to deliver projects/contracts
- Development and implementation of engineering solutions to client issues
- Preparation of quotations
- Procurement of equipment and materials
- Reporting project status to clients
- Collate technical data for handover documentation
- Liaise with Clients and Suppliers
- Liaise and coordinate with work crews

The Person

- Third level qualification in mechanical engineering
- Ability to handle multiple projects in parallel
- Ability to make decisions based on analysis of data and logical thinking
- Experience in water/wastewater or industrial pipework systems desirable, typically 5 years
- Competent verbal and written communicator
- Practical engineering interests and aptitude

Remuneration

- Competitive salary depending on qualifications and experience
- Matched contributions pension scheme
- Income protection provision
- Death in service provision
- 32 days holidays per annum
- Continuing professional development and career progression